Jesus comes for all

God sent Jesus for everyone all over the world, even people we don't know who live in places we've never heard of.

Color the continents, connect them together with hearts, and say a prayer of thanksgiving that Jesus' light shines all around the world!

At home, light four candles to celebrate the fourth week of Advent.

Thanks be to God that Jesus comes for everyone everywhere! Amen

This week

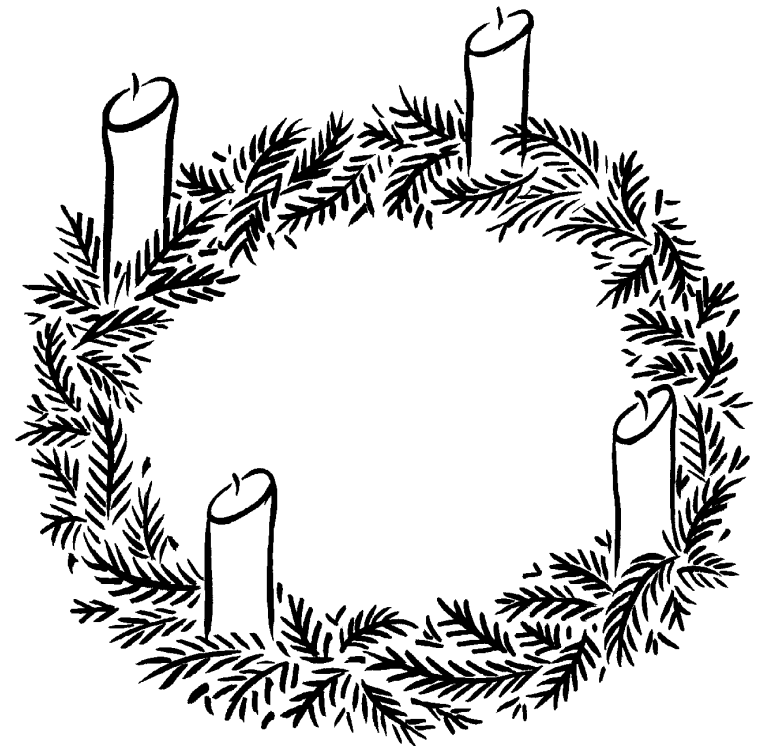

Each evening before bed, point to a spot on a map or globe. Pray for all people living in that place.

Welcome to worship. Today is the fourth Sunday of Advent, and we continue to watch and wait for baby Jesus. It's almost time!

Color all four candles in the advent wreath shown below, then draw pictures of other things you have been waiting for during Advent.

Gabriel Makes an Announcement

Luke 1:26-38

Who told Mary that she was going to have a baby? What was Gabriel's announcement? Who said, "Here am I, the servant of the Lord"?

Listen to the gospel, and connect the dots to discover the answers to the questions, then read about it at home in the first chapter of Luke.
